AT the Court at Weymouth, the 28th of September, 1798,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the Twenty-ninth of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, His Majeſty was pleaſed to declare, that the Coaſts and Ports of Genoa, and thoſe of the Territory of the Pope, ſhould be conſidered as in a State of Hoſtility with His Majeſty, and to require all His Majeſty's Subjects, and others, to treat and conſider the Inhabitants and Subjects thereof as His Majeſty's Enemies; His Majeſty, being determined to take ſuch further Meaſures as are neceſſary for vindicating the Honor of His Crown, is pleaſed, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Repriſals be granted againſt the Ships and Goods belonging to the Perſons inhabiting the Coaſts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now ſubject to the pretended Authority of Governments conſtituted by the Power of His Majeſty's Enemies, ſtyling themſelves the Ligurian and the Roman Republicks, ſo that as well His Majeſty's Fleet and Ships, as alſo all other Ships and Veſſels that ſhall be commiſſionated by Letters of Marque, or General Repriſals, or otherwiſe, by His Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, ſhall and may lawfully ſeize all Ships, Veſſels, and Goods, belonging to the Perſons inhabiting the Coaſts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now ſubject to the pretended Authority of Governments conſtituted by the Power of His Majeſty's Enemies, ſtyling themſelves the Ligurian and the Roman Republicks, and bring the ſame to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majeſty's Dominions; and to that End, His Majeſty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commiſſion, and preſent the ſame to His Majeſty at this Board, authoriſing the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Perſon or Perſons by them empowered and appointed, to iſſue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Repriſals to any of His Majeſty's Subjects, or others, whom the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, ſeizing, and taking the Ships, Veſſels, and Goods belonging to the Perſons inhabiting the Coaſts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now ſubject to the pretended Authority of Governments conſtituted by the Power of His Majeſty's Enemies, ſtyling themſelves the Ligurian and Roman Republicks; and that ſuch Powers and Clauſes be inſerted in the ſaid Commiſſion as have been uſual, and are according to former Precedents: And His Majeſty's ſaid Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are alſo forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commiſſion, and preſent the ſame to His Majeſty, at this Board, authoriſing the ſaid Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the ſaid Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as alſo the ſeveral Courts of Admiralty within His Majeſty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all, and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Repriſals, of all Ships and Goods that are or ſhall be taken, and to hear and determine the ſame; and according to the Courſe of Admiralty, and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all ſuch Ships, Veſſels, and Goods, as ſhall belong to the Perſons inhabiting the Coaſts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now ſubject to the pretended Authority of Governments conſtituted by the Power of His Majeſty's Enemies, ſtyling themſelves the Ligurian and the Roman Republicks; and that ſuch Powers and Clauſes be inſerted in the ſaid Commiſſion as have been uſual, and are according to former Precedents. And they are likewiſe to prepare and lay before His Majeſty, at this Board, a Draught of ſuch Inſtructions as may be proper to be ſent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majeſty's Foreign Governments and Plantations, for their Guidance herein; as alſo another Draught of Inſtructions for ſuch Ships as ſhall be commiſſionated for the Purpoſes aforementioned.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 10, 1798.

NOTICE is hereby given, that there will be a Levee at St. James's on Wedneſday the 24th, and a Drawing Room on Thurſday the 25th Inſtant.

Philadelphia, June 25, 1798.

Mr. Marſhall, One of the Three Commiſſioners at Paris, who lately arrived here from France by Way of New-York, has been received with much Diſtinction. He was met at ſome Miles Diſtance from Philadelphia by the Secretary of State and ſome Members of the Senate, eſcorted into Town by a Party of the new raiſed Volunteer Corps, and a public Dinner has been ſince given to him by the principal Members of the Two Houſes of Congreſs.

Philadelphia, July 16, 1798.

The Meaſures adopted with a View to place this Country in a State of Preparation for a War with France, continue to be carried on with conſiderable Spirit. The defenceleſs Situation of the different Sea-Port Towns is particularly felt, and the Erection or Repair of the Fortifications neceſſary for the Protection of the moſt expoſed Places is begun all along the Coaſt of the Atlantic with a great Degree of Energy. In ſome Parts of the Country, particularly at New-York, Individuals have offered their perſonal Service, gratis, for the Conſtruction of Batteries. The Sum appropriated to this Object by Congreſs is Four Hundred and Thirty Thouſand Dollars: And an Act has been paſſed, that when any Individual State, that happens to be indebted to the General Union, ſhall, with the Approbation of the Preſident, complete any Fortification already begun, or erect any additional Works, the Money thus applied ſhall be placed to the Credit of that State.

The Three Frigates ordered by Congreſs to be completed and equipped, the United States of Forty-four Guns, the Conſtitution of Forty-four, and the Conſtellation of Thirty-ſix Guns, have found no Difficulty in procuring their full Complement of Men, although the monthly Pay, Seventeen Dollars to able bodied Seamen, and Ten Dollars to ordinary Seamen, is much inferior to the Wages given at preſent by the Captains of Merchant Veſſels.

A conſiderable Addition to the Number of theſe large Frigates is likely to be made by voluntary Subſcription; the Merchants of Philadelphia have undertaken to conſtruct One of Forty-four Guns: At Boſton upwards of One Hundred Thouſand Dollars have been ſubſcribed for a ſimilar Purpoſe: At Baltimore, One Hundred Thouſand: At New-York, Alexandria, Norfolk, Richmond, Charleſtown, and almoſt all the conſiderable Towns of the Union, proportionate Sums have been generouſly contributed.

The Congreſs have authoriſed the Preſident to build a conſiderable Number of Veſſels of inferior Size:—Six of Thirty-two Guns, Twelve of from Twenty to Twenty-two Guns, Six of Eighteen Guns, and Ten Gallies. The Number of Revenue Cutters, which carry from Eight to Fourteen Guns each, are alſo to be multiplied along the Coaſts, and the Preſident is empowered to increaſe their Complement of Men to the Number of Seventy. Theſe Veſſels have been authoriſed by Act of Congreſs to take all French Armed Veſſels, and to retake ſuch American Veſſels as may have been captured. The Exertions of the Officers and Crews have been encouraged by a Law ſecuring to them a certain Share in the Value of the Prizes they may make. The French Privateer lately brought in by the American Sloop of War the Delaware, has been regularly libelled, and condemned in the Court of Admiralty here. The Crews have been conſidered as Priſoners of War, and are to be confined in Lancaſter Jail.

Congreſs has further ordered the Formation of a Corps of Marines to conſiſt of Five Hundred Men, under the Directions of a Major and a proper Number of Subaltern Officers; and it appears that it is likely to be raiſed without Difficulty.

Much Time has been ſpent in Congreſs on a Plan for better organizing and diſciplining the Militia. The Preſident has been authoriſed to purchaſe Thirty Thouſand Stand of Small Arms for the Uſe of thoſe Bodies of Militia that are moſt in want of them, which are to be depoſited in convenient Situations, and to be either lent to the different Corps, or ſold to them at prime Coſt.

The regular Army of the United States is alſo to receive ſome Increaſe: Congreſs has authoriſed the raiſing of Twelve new Regiments of Infantry, and Six Troops of Light Dragoons, (which, with the Two Troops already exiſting, will form a Regiment,) in Addition to the Proviſional Army of Ten Thouſand Men which the Preſident has it in his Power to levy in caſe of a threatened Invaſion. By this Means the regular Army will amount upon the Whole to between Twelve and Thirteen Thouſand Men, excluſive of the proviſional one juſt mentioned.

The Volunteer Corps proceed with very great Succeſs. The Spirit of Enliſtment has been in ſome Degree increaſed by a Plan, adopted by Congreſs, empowering the Volunteers to form themſelves into Legions; that is to ſay, as it is underſtood here, into Corps compoſed of Infantry, Cavalry, and Artillery.

A Body of this Kind has very ſuddenly acquired Numbers and Reſpectability, and is likely ſoon to have the full Complement of Two Thouſand Men. It is expected that thoſe Volunteers who may offer their Service, in the whole Extent of the United States, may in the End amount to from Ninety to a Hundred Thouſand Men.

Vienna, October 4.

The laſt Accounts from Malta, which were dated the 26th of Auguſt, brought Intelligence that the French Troops, to the Number of about Two Thouſand Five Hundred Men, had, in conſequence of the Diſcontents of the Inhabitants, which had broken out into Acts of Violence, retired within the Forts, whither they had tranſported the Powder and as much Flour as they could lay up in the Magazine; and that, in order to avoid the Diminution of this Store, they compelled the Inhabitants and the Town, by the firing of a Cannon laden with a Ball over their Houſes, to bring them, from Time to Time, ſufficient Proviſions for their preſent Conſumption.

Conſtantinople, Sept. 8, 1798.

Immediately upon receiving the News of the Victory off the Mouth of the Nile, the Grand Signior directed a ſuperb Diamond Aigrette, (called a Chelengk, or Plume of Triumph,) taken from one of the Imperial Turbans, to be ſent to Admiral Sir Horatio Nelſon, together with a Pelice of Sable Fur of the firſt Quality.

He directed alſo a Purſe of Two Thouſand Zequins to be diſtributed among the Britiſh Seamen wounded at the Battle of the Nile.

Theſe Preſents are to be conveyed to Sir Horatio Nelſon in a Turkiſh Frigate.

The following is a Tranſlation of the Note delivered to Mr. Smith, His Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary upon the Occaſion:

TRANSLATION.

IT is but lately, that by a written Communication it has been made known how much the Sublime Porte rejoiced at the firſt Advice received of the Engliſh Squadron in the White Sea having defeated the French Squadron of Alexandria in Egypt.

By recent Accounts comprehending a ſpecifick detail of the Action, it appears now more poſitive, that His Britannick Majeſty's Fleet has actually deſtroyed by that Action the beſt Ships the French had in their Poſſeſſion.

This joyful Event, therefore, laying this Empire under an Obligation, and the Service rendered by our much eſteemed Friend Admiral Nelſon on this Occaſion being of a Nature to call for Publick Acknowledgment; His Imperial Majeſty the Powerful, Formidable, and Moſt Magnificent Grand Signior has deſtined as a Preſent in his Imperial Name to the ſaid Admiral, a Diamond Aigrette, (Chelengk,) and a Sable Fur with Broad Sleeves; beſides Two Thouſand Zequins to be diſtributed among the Wounded of his Crew. And as the Engliſh Miniſter is conſtantly zealous to contribute, by his Endeavours, to the increaſe of Friendſhip between the Two Courts, it is hoped he will not fail to make known this Circumſtance to his Court, and to ſolicit the Permiſſion of the Powerful and Moſt Auguſt King of England for the ſaid Admiral to put on and wear the ſaid Aigrette and Pelice.

September 8, 1798.

Conſtantinople, Sept. 19, 1798.

Vice-Admiral Ouſchakoff's Squadron is now actually under Weigh for the Dardanelles, &c.

By Letters juſt received from Smyrna, it appears, that the general Meaſures of Police adopted againſt the French have been purſued there with a more exemplary Rigour than elſewhere. The Individuals of the French Nation have been thrown into the common Priſons, and the whole French Miſſion, including Jean Bon St. André, and his Papers, laden on Half a Dozen Mules, are upon their Way hither under an Eſcort.

Three French Veſſels have been captured in the Harbour, and the whole French Property on Shore confiſcated.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Cadiz, the 30th September, 1798.

SIR,

I Enclose Two Letters, representing eminent Services performed by Officers and Part of the Crew of His Majesty's Ships the Goliath and Alcmene.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

ST. VINCENT.

Goliath, off the Mouth of the Nile, the 25th August, 1798.

SIR,

I Have great Pleasure in informing you, that at Half after One this Morning, the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Goliath, under the Direction of Lieutenant William Debusk, attacked and carried, after an obstinate Action of Fifteen Minutes, the French National Armed Ketch Torride, of Seventy Men, commanded by Mr. Martin Bedat, Lieutenant de Vaisseaux, mounting Three long Eighteen-Pounders, Four Swivels, and well appointed in Small Arms: The Castle of Berquier, under the Guns of which the Torride was moored, also fired for her Support, but the Skill and Courage of Lieutenant Debusk, and those under his Command, was such as to baffle every Attempt to save her. The French Captain is badly wounded, I have therefore sent him on Shore with a Flag of Truce. Lieutenant Debusk is slightly wounded, and One of his People likely to suffer Amputation of his Left Arm; the Prize had Three killed and Ten wounded; several of the Prisoners escaped to the Shore by swimming.

I have, &c. &c. &c.

THO. FOLEY.

To Captain Hood, Zealous.

Alcmene, off Alexandria, Aug. 22, 1798.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to inform you that La Legere French Gun Boat, mounting Two Six Pounders, some Swivels, and Sixty-one Men, was captured this Day by His Majesty's Ship under my Command.

Though every Preparation was made for running alongside and boarding her, to save any Dispatches she might have for Buonaparte, we could not prevent their being thrown overboard, which was however perceived by John Taylor and James Harding, belonging to the Alcmene, who, at the Risk of their Lives, (the Ship then going between Five and Six Knots,) dashed overboard, and saved the whole of them.

Both Men were most fortunately picked up by the Boat that was sent after them, and I conceive it my Duty to make known the very spirited Conduct they shewed on this Occasion, for the good of the Service. I am,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

GEORGE HOPE.

To Samuel Hood, Esq.
Captain of His Majesty's Ship Zealous.

La Legere is Forty Days from Toulon, bound to Alexandria with Dispatches for General Buonaparte.

Extract of another Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Cadiz, the 28th September, 1798.

HErewith I enclose Copies of Two Letters from Captain Digby, of His Majesty's Ship the Aurora, relating to Captures lately made by that Ship.

His Majesty's Ship Aurora, Lisbon, 19 September, 1798.

My Lord,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you of my Arrival in the Tagus with La Velos Aragonesa, Spanish-built Frigate (Lettre de Marque) of Thirty Guns and Ninety Men, Jasé Eloy Sanchez, Commander, with a Cargo from La Guayra; she sails very fast. A Defect in her Rudder, and Fore-Top-Mast being reefed, prevented her Escape. Many of her Guns were thrown overboard during the Chace on the 16th Instant, Twenty Leagues to the Westward of the Bayones.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

H. DIGBY.

His Majesty's Ship Aurora, River Tagus.

My Lord,

I Have enclosed a List of Vessels taken during my last Cruize *.

La Velos Aragonesa is a very complete Ship, as large as our Four-and-Twenties; left Old Spain the 10th of April last in Company with a Ship of the Line and Two Frigates, that went to Cuba; her Cargo by Register consists of 3702 Fanegas, 87 lb. Cocoa, 98466 lb. Coffee, 3381 lb. Indigo. Though very deep, she sails well: the Petterel in Sight at the Commencement of the Chace.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Graham Moore, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Melampus, to Sir John Borlase Warren, dated at Sea off Lough Swilly, the 16th Instant.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that on the 13th Instant, at Midnight, being well up towards St. John's Point, we discovered Two large Ships close to us on our Weather-Beam; on seeing us they hauled up on the opposite Tack; as I had not the least Doubt of their being Two of the Enemy's Frigates, we tacked and closed with the nearest in an Hour, going Ten Knots. After hailing and ordering her to bring-to without Effect, she trying to get away athwart our Stern, we opened such a Fire upon her as completely unrigged her in about Twenty-five Minutes, and forced her to bring-to, and surrender; she proved to be La Resolue French Frigate, commanded by Jean Pierre Barqueau, mounting Forty Guns and Five Hundred Seamen and Troops on board, the other Frigate was L'Immortalité, of Forty-four Guns, Twenty-four Pounders on the Main Deck, and Six Hundred Seamen and Soldiers, she made several Signals whilst we were occupied with her Consort, but gave us no Disturbance.

Both on this Occasion, and during the Action of the 12th, the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, of His

* Omitted to be sent.

Majeſty's Ship under my Command diſplayed the utmoſt Degree of Zeal, Alacrity, andg allant Spirit; Mr. Martin, (the Firſt Lieutenant, an old and good Officer,) with Lieutenants Price, Elliſon, and Hole, of the Marines, conducted themſelves much to my Satisfaction, and I experienced very great Aſſiſtance from the ſteady good Conduct of Mr. Emory, the Maſter.

As a very heavy Gale of Wind came on immediately after our boarding La Reſolue, the Second Lieutenant, Mr. John Price, with Twenty-one Men, were all that could be thrown on board of her, with the Loſs of our Two Cutters. That Officer deſerves very great Credit for his active Exertion in clearing her of the Wreck of her Maſts and Rigging, and in keeping Company in ſo violent a Storm; as our Object was to diſable our Antagoniſt before her Conſort could aſſiſt her. La Reſolue had only Ten Men killed, and a great Number wounded; but I am inexpreſſibly happy to add, that in the Action of the 12th, we had only One Man wounded; and the Affair of the 13th did not deprive their Country of the Services of a ſingle Man of the brave Crew of the Melampus.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

Copy of another Letter from Rear-Admiral Harvey, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels at the Leeward Iſlands, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on board the Prince of Wales, Fort Royal Bay, Martinique, 8th September 1798.

SIR,

I AM to acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordſhips, that ſince my Letter to you of the 8th Ultimo, His Majeſty's Ships Concorde and Lapwing have captured the undermentioned French Privateers (Schooners) belonging to Gaudaloupe:

La Buonaparte, of Eight Guns and Seventy-two Men:

L'Amazone, of Ten Guns and Eighty Men:

La Sauveur, of Four Guns and Twenty Men; and

La Fortune, of Two Guns and Twenty-two Men.

And the Lapwing captured, on the 12th Ult. the Invariable Schooner Letter of Marque, of Four Guns and Twenty Men, laden with Dry Goods, from St. Bartholomew's bound to Guadaloupe.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SALE of the LAND TAX,
For the County of Middlesex.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax, arising within the County of Middlesex, will meet at the Session-House upon Clerkenwell-Green, on Thursday the 1st Day of November next, and every following Day, (Sundays excepted,) between the Hours of Eleven in the Morning and Three in the Afternoon, to carry the Act of Parliament, for such Redemption and Purchase into Execution: And, as the Advantages to those who may be inclined to redeem the Land Tax charged upon their own Estates are obvious, and the Mode of Payment easy, they are hereby informed, that they should make immediate Application to the Clerks to the Commissioners of the Land Tax in their respective Divisions, for the necessary Certificates of the Amount of the Land Tax intended to be redeemed, in order to produce the same on the said 1st Day of November, or any other Board Day; and then declare whether they intend to pay for the same immediately, or by Instalments, as they are allowed Four Years, by equal Quarterly Payments, to transfer the Stock required, as the Consideration of the Sale. Power is given by the Act, to Persons beneficially entitled to the Rents and Profits, to sell or mortgage a Part of their Estates for the Purpose of such Redemption or Purchase; and Tenants in Tail may convey for the like Purpose, by Deed, registered without Fine or Recovery; but they must observe, that Persons entitled to Preference will in no Case be allowed longer than the 25th Day of March next to make their Election and complete their Contracts; and that such Persons who are in the actual Possession of the Rents and Profits, or immediately entitled thereto, having the First Right of Preference, must make their Election and complete their Contracts on or before the 25th Day of December next.

By Order of the Board,
Daniel Hinley, Clerk.
